

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

within 24 hours of the discovery of such disease, and to thoroughly isolate any cow or cows so diseased, or which may be reasonably believed to be so diseased or infected, and to exercise such other precautions as may be directed by the said county health officer.

(15) Milkers or those engaged in the handling of milk or cream and other dairy products shall maintain strict cleanliness of their hands and persons while milking or handling such milk or milk products. It shall be the duty of every person, firm, or corporation holding a permit to maintain a dairy or dairy farm, or to sell milk or cream or milk products, to enforce this regulation in reference to such persons as may assist them in the work or maintenance thereof.

SEC. 116. Penalty for violations of the foregoing rules governing the maintenance of dairies and dairy farms.—Any person, firm, or corporation failing to comply with or violating any of the foregoing rules and regulations, numbered from 1 to 15, inclusive, and contained in section 115 of these regulations, shall be subject to a penalty of $20 for each and every such offense, and where the condition or neglect provided against shall continue from day to day, each such day shall be considered a separate offense, and the board of health shall revoke the license of any person, firm, or corporation who shall, after due notice, continue in such violation or such neglect.

Stables—Location, Construction, and Maintenance. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 8, 1914.)

SEC. 36. Stables for horses and mules, location.—No building or other structure used for the stabling of horses or mules, singly or otherwise, shall be maintained or used within the corporate limits of the city of Wilmington unless the same be 30 feet or more from any dwelling or part thereof or from any building or store in which food for human consumption is stored or kept for sale.

SEC. 37. Stables for horses and mules, construction of, cleaning.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to have, keep, or maintain any stable used for a horse or horses, mule or mules, within the corporate limits of the city of Wilmington unless the same shall be provided with a water-tight, wood, brick, cement, or tamped clay floor, properly drained. Tamped clay floors herein provided for shall be underlaid with sufficient and adequate foundations throughout, and so tamped and rammed with a sufficient amount of clay that the surface thereof shall be impermeable to water and so drained that at no place on said surfaces shall water or other fluids stand or accumulate.

Every such stable shall be cleaned daily and shall be provided with a fly-proof bin substantially covered, which shall be kept tightly closed at all times save when being filled or emptied, in which all manure and litter shall be placed daily. Said bin to be emptied and contents removed from the city limits whenever necessary, or at least four times each month.

SEC. 38. Stables, sanitation of, penalty.—That all stables and premises herein provided for shall be kept clean and shall be disinfected and attended to in such manner and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board of health or the county health officer. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any provision of these regulations governing the keeping and stabling of domesticated animals shall be subject to a penalty of $10 for each and every such offense, and each day the provisions of these regulations or any part of them are uncomplished with shall constitute a separate offense.

Rabies—Muzzling of Dogs. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 8, 1914.)

SEC. 39. Dogs, hydrophobia.—Whenever in the opinion of the board of health there is reason to apprehend danger of the existence or spread of hydrophobia in the county of New Hanover, it shall be the duty of the board of health to issue a proclamation, to be published at least five times in the newspapers of the county, notifying the